

the sensations of riding the sky train great stop to stop but not departure.

greeny - oh bright! - greeny slow, some singing the lurch forward then swaying as we get on the way, then as slowing down jitters in my feet.

when in touch on narrow place - jitters to begin, slow.

always punctuated by tuck-tuck sound of rail chatters / new / connecting

Imagine when approach last stop as I just saw big green rd. Blue - places

I recognize.

city made along lines of regular concrete - (Bissell & Bond) no one present - way to walk as would - what is this we offered to participants?
